Rules for EPSA Ambassadors

Who can be an Ambassador?

If you are:

- A Steering Group member
 - A member of a Self-Advocacy organisation that is a member of EPSA
 - A member of a European Self-Advocacy organisation
- you can be an EPSA Ambassador.

The Steering Group members are automatically EPSA Ambassadors.

The Steering Group has to approve all the other applications.

You must be nominated by an EPSA member.

You must be involved in Self-Advocacy at national level
in order to be chosen as Ambassador.

What are the Ambassadors tasks?

EPSA Ambassadors represent EPSA
at national and international level.

The Ambassadors task is to let others know about EPSA work and about the self-advocacy movement.

They should go to events like Seminars or meetings and talk about EPSA.

They can also go to international events.

Going to Seminars, Congress, meetings and other events

Once you have identified an activity to attend
you must fill the application form.

You have to send the application form to EPSA President, Andrew Doyle.

You must send it at least 15 days before the activity.

You will receive a reply at least 7 days before the activity.

How will it work?

Once you have been nominated EPSA Ambassador you will receive a powerpoint presentation about EPSA. You should use this to let others know about EPSA. You will also receive publications in Easy-to-Read in your own language.

Reporting

For each activity you attend as an EPSA Ambassador you must do a report. Each report must have at least 4 photos of the event. We will use the photos for publicity. You should use the Reporting Form to do the report.

Payment of expenses

You must document all your expenses as an EPSA Ambassador. You should ask for reimbursement using the Reimbursement form. You must send the form with all the receipts in order to receive the payment. Reimbursements will be done 30 days after receiving the claim.
